"Clubs Are Trumps" In The Herald's Big Contest

Winners of Special Prizes on October 31
to be Announced
Tuesday

¶ The attention of candidates in The Herald's Great Popular Election is called to the schedule of votes in effect from today until the close of the contest. This schedule has been announced daily to go into effect after 11 p. m., October 31. It will pay every candidate to keep a copy of this schedule for reference. It is published complete elsewhere on this page.

¶ Candidates have a comparatively limited amount of time in which to secure the extra votes given for clubs of TEN NEW subscribers for the daily Herald. This offer will expire November 14, at 11 p. m., which is one week from Saturday night. From that date until the close of the Contest no extra votes will be given for new subscribers. During the remainder of the Contest there will positively be no vote offer other than those now being announced. Read the details of the "Club" offer elsewhere on this page.

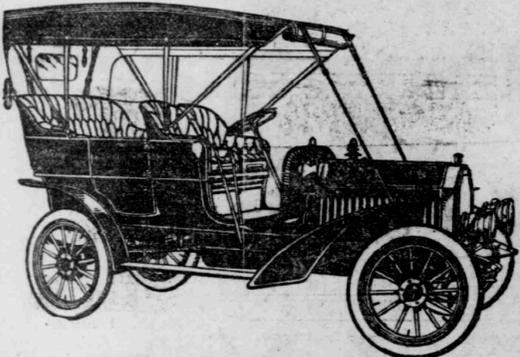

¶ Winners of the Special prizes given for increases in votes between Oct. 15 and Oct. 31 will be announced in Tuesday's Herald. The prizes will be distributed to the fortunate winners immediately after Tuesday's announcement.

¶ When the votes received by all candidates up to 11 o'clock last Saturday night are published Tuesday morning, there will be a great many surprised. Many candidates who have been in the Contest only a few days surprised every one by the large votes which they polled. In most cases competition for the capital and grand prizes is very close and the remainder of the Contest promises to be close.

First Capital Prize — House and Lot

The above is the architect's drawing of The Herald's $6,000.00 Prize House to be erected for the winner on two lots in Newhouse Park. This prize home will contain seven rooms and bath, and will be supplied with every convenience known to modern home construction. It will be awarded, absolutely free of cost to the candidate receiving the most votes in The Herald's Big Contest up to 11 p. m., Nov. 25.

Buick Automobile, Second Capital Prize

The above cut shows the handsome Buick Automobile, which will be awarded as second capital prize in The Herald's Great Popular Election at the close of the contest Nov. 25. This machine is now on exhibition at the Consolidated Wagon & Machine company's warerooms, where candidates and their friends are asked to call and inspect it. Think of the pleasure the ownership of this car would bring to you. It will be awarded to some fortunate man or woman exactly as represented in the above cut. With top, lamps, horn, etc. There is no better car made in the world for the price than the Buick. It combines all the features necessary to a really first-class automobile, and its superiority of construction and material is universally admitted.

¶ There will be opportunities for new candidates to enter the contest up until the last minute. A great many hustling men and women have already taken advantage of the opportunity offered to win several hundred dollars within the next few weeks with very little effort. The highest vote in the entire Contest can be easily overcome.

¶ The Herald has a $6,000.00 prize home for someone! It might as well be you!
